WEEKLY UPDATE

A Message from Winnipeg Transit:

As you are likely aware, we at Winnipeg Transit launched a new network of transit routes and stops this summer. Our fall schedules are available in advance and we continue to message heavily about our new network.

Printed system maps

For those who prefer a paper resource, printed system maps for our new transit network are available at Winnipeg Transit Customer Service Centres and Winnipeg Public Library branches.

School charters

We also wanted to highlight once again that because the new network was designed to serve schools well, additional school charters will no longer run.

Street teams

Street teams will be out Tuesday, Sept. 2 through Friday, Sept. 5 to assist passengers, as they were during the network launch. Members of our street teams will be wearing blue vests with the Winnipeg Transit logo.

We want your feedback (yes, really!)

We launched this new network to improve service. But it's just the first step. We're analyzing feedback we get through 311 to help us:

- Make minor, short-term changes where needed
- Decide what long-term changes to recommend for the future

Best wishes,

Megan Benedictson (she/her)
