We acknowledge that our water is sourced from Shoal Lake 40 First Nation. We are gathered on Treaty one land, les terres sur lesquelles nous sommes rassemblés aujourd'hui font partie du territoire traditionnel des personnes Anishinaabeg, Ininiwak, Anishininiwak, Dakota, et Déné, et de la patrie de la nation métisse de la Rivière Rouge.

We stand with the Indigenous community and commit to building an ongoing process of reconciliation, collaboration, and resurgence. Nous restons déterminés à travailler en partenariat avec les Premières Nations, Inuit et Métisses dans un esprit de vérité, réconciliation et collaboration.

Day 6

Don't miss out on our Diwali celebration happening today, during lunch! Head over to the trophy case to join the festivities. We will have samosas for sale at $2.50 each and henna tattoos ranging from $1 to $5. Come enjoy some food, and celebrate with us today at lunch. Diwali is the festival of lights celebrated across multiple religions—including Hinduism, Jainism, Sikhism, and Buddhism. It honors the ultimate triumph of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance, and good over evil. Wishing all students and staff who celebrate a very Happy Diwali this Sunday!

Reminder – the National Universities Fair is being held today from 9:00 am to 11:15 am in the centre gym. Grade 11 and 12 students will visit with their classroom teacher at the scheduled time.
