We acknowledge that our water is sourced from Shoal Lake 40 First Nation. We are gathered on Treaty one land, les terres sur lesquelles nous sommes rassemblés aujourd'hui font partie du territoire traditionnel des personnes Anishinaabeg, Ininiwak, Anishininiwak, Dakota, et Déné, et de la patrie de la nation métisse de la Rivière Rouge.

We stand with the Indigenous community and commit to building an ongoing process of reconciliation, collaboration, and resurgence. Nous restons déterminés à travailler en partenariat avec les Premières Nations, Inuit et Métisses dans un esprit de vérité, réconciliation et collaboration.

Wednesday Announcements – November 18

Day 1

Congrats to Mohammed Semchaoui and Annika Kroeker on their fine work at the North End Debate League tournament yesterday. Extra cheers to Annika who medaled in the top 5 speakers in the Novice category. The next two English language debate tournaments are the Rupert's Land Debate & Public Speaking Tournament and the Douglas Campbell Public Speaking Competition. If you're interested in public speaking and debate, please come to a meeting on Friday at lunch – room to be announced – to find out more information.

Do you enjoy being creative, trying new things, and working with others? We're looking for about 25 student volunteers for the 2nd Divisional Kinship & Care Student Showcase on December 9th at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights! Lunch will be provided! You'll help lead fun, hands-on activities like weaving, beading, origami, and portrait collages for visiting middle years students. You'll also help spark conversations about human rights, justice, equity, and change. No experience necessary! Training will be provided, and you'll earn volunteer hours. To sign up, see Mde. Smith in Room W221 or Ms. Sauler in Room E104A. Bring a friend and join us!

The Canadian Armed Forces will be here today in room W105 at 11:45 for a presentation about paid education plans, employment opportunities and basic training. If you'd like to know more, please attend.

REMINDER - Fundraising Orders & Payments for Kernels Popcorn & Instacake Cake'n'cards must be turned in to Lubkey by the end of the day today. You will find her in Room W209. Fundscrip Gift Card orders & payments are done online until Friday!!

Hey Garden City! Come support "Crusts for Cancer", our pop-up pizza sale happening at lunch in the Commons today! Grab hot pepperoni or cheese pizza for just $2.50 a slice. Need a drink? We've got pop for $1.50. Or, get our best deal: the combo with two slices and a drink for only $5.50! Best of all, 100% of profits go to CancerCare Manitoba. Get there early before we sell out.

There will be an Arts leadership meeting today at 2:30 in the choir room.

Congratulations to Garden City Groove and Garden City Mix vocal jazz groups on their performances at Choralfest on Monday. You sang with passion, energy, musicality and represented Garden City so well.
